I agree to abide by any decisions made by a representative of Good News India. I understand that my failure to abide by those decisions may result in expulsion from the team and any further participation in the mission trip. I have been advised of the risks associated with this trip including, but not limited to, effects of the weather, high heat and/or humidity, conditions of roads and traffic in the country/s where we will work. I assume all known and unknown risks during the trip.

I have been advised in regards to travel insurance. I understand it is highly recommended to obtain insurance and I further understand it is at my discretion and responsibility to purchase such insurance.

I understand that any changes in travel arrangements previously confirmed by Good News India may result in additional charges. Should I choose to change my travel arrangements with Good News India and the transportation companies retained, I hereby take full responsibility for these charges.
